This week we consider:

Is knowledge power?

Facebook pictures of the week:

Many congratulations to the cast, band and crew of 'Fame' which was staged at the Princess Royal Centre for the Performing Arts this week. The show was absolutely brimming with energy and there were some terrific performances from the 40+ strong cast. It was a wonderful experience for the cast to perform in a working theatre and the feedback from those in the audience has been overwhelmingly positive. What a joy it is to see our students shine and truly be the best that they can be.
