This week we consider:

Finding light in the darkness

Facebook picture of the week:

This week at the Sovereign Arts Foundation Guernsey Final held at St James two students very deservedly were awarded the Art for Guernsey Scholarship Award of an all-expensive paid Residential Art Masterclass in London. One of these students, Abi, went on to win the The Judges Prize (The top prize to be awarded), with her stunning painting 'Malala'.

The standard of 20 selected finalists were excellent and the Art Department are extremely proud to have 10 of The Ladies' College students in the final. Full story on the website - <https://www.ladiescollege.com/news/2022/sovereign-art-judges-winner-2023>

Don't forget to book your tickets for the Jubilee Ball - a couple of 12s are still available to book, otherwise all tables of 10 persons

Christmas Raffle!

The Senior School PTA would like to thank everyone who made a donation towards this year's Christmas Hamper raffle - there are some lovely prizes to be won.

Following next week's Carol Service on Wednesday 14th December in St Stephen's church, mulled wine and mince pies will be served in the Core and tickets will be available to buy. Tickets will also be available on Thursday morning during tutor time and up to breaktime. The draw will be made at lunchtime and winners announced via Teams and the College social media channels.

Tickets are priced at £1 each.
