Facebook picture of the week:

We were delighted to welcome Michael Buerk to The Ladies' College and for him to chair the Big Debate on the motion: 'This house believes that sexism is worse today than 30 years ago'.

Principal, Daniele Harford-Fox and Upper Sixth student, Sophie Kent were the proposition speakers and Governor at The Ladies' College, Deputy Heidi Soulsby MBE and Lower Sixth student Mia Edgworth were the opposition speakers.

It was a great debate to watch and so many topical issues were raised. Both students spoke exceptionally well!

If you missed the debate, you can watch it back here: <https://www.facebook.com/TheLadiesCollegeGuernsey/videos/570832824967313>

Thank you Michael and Heidi for joining us at The Ladies' College and thank you to sponsors Investec and the NED Forum for supporting with Michael's visit.
