Dear Parents and Guardians

GCSE curriculum support evenings - Samba

I am writing to invite your daughter to take part in the samba curriculum support evening which runs in the examination year for music GCSE students. These evenings are arranged to support the works within area of study 3 (Rhythms of the world) and include practical activities. Please note that the evening will cost £5, and supper will be provided.

This is the third of the three sessions and will take place on Tuesday 21st March at The Ladies' College. The session will commence at 18:00 and the evening will end at 20:15. Parents are invited from 20:00 to watch a performance of the skills developed throughout the evening.

I hope your daughter will be able to attend and request the form in the link provided is completed by Friday 17th March. Payment for the evenings should be handed in at the event. <https://forms.office.com/e/3ncBYvCb4V>

Please note that these evenings are not compulsory and are to supplement the learning of this area of the GCSE listening paper. Full coverage of all areas take place within the taught GCSE lessons.

Yours sincerely,

Anthea Roue
