This week we consider:

Season of Remembrance

Facebook picture of the week:

We hosted our annual House Debate before half term. Students from each House, spanning various age groups, were assisted by researchers in preparing arguments for and against different topics. The debates were engaging and well-attended, with speakers displaying confidence and quick thinking.

The final round focused on "AI's impact" with well-researched arguments. Carey emerged as the debating champion, following deliberation by the judges. Well done everyone!
